Monday Eve
(After School)

Dearest Thomas Aquinas:

Patty is home. Been here since Friday - came over today - Dad was home. Then came up to school tonight to see me. We had a nice visit. When she left I told her to keep next week-end Open Cause you might be down. She intimated that she might do that at any rate she is going to be at the concert. Quite a girl - Patty.

How did you get the week started? Monday is always kind of a headache.

Guess the county tournament starts tomorrow if that means anything. Hartys girls lost to Kensal in the finals.

Every day is just like every other but time goes on. Mom is working real good and don't be surprisid if we pull up at St. Johns on Friday. No, I guess not - its' a little too risky on these roads. Be nice tho!

Better get this on the way - don't be lonesome cause your Ma & Pa loves you.

Write when you can.
