Dearest Tom:

Just heard Ike gave a speech — seems the condition in the Middle East must be precarious — what's the matter with Israel?

How are you doing? Snow all over the place here today — wish it had held off.

Letter from Sis — self explanatory — will enclose.

Had a letter from Jim to remind us that Monday was his birthday. Cute isn't he? Guess he's feeling good cause he won a game. Has to play Wibaux 1st in the tournament — expects to lose that but thinks he can come in the back door and win like he did last year.

One more day of school and then we can go. Jim is looking forward

Guess I'm hitting for the world's record in "duds" tonight with this letter.

The harder I try to write you a sparkling epistle full of exciting news
the "cornier" I get. Hope soon to see that paper you wrote on the "Ideal Wife".

When can I?

Guessed on the total score of the County tournament - hope to win
another radio.

Well nite honey - spouse you'll be glad when this week is over.

Love
Momm

Tuesday A.M.

Dearest Mom & Dad,

Only got a minute. Just wanted to tell you that I just talked to the alumnae office, and they are sending me five tickets today. Thought I'd better get one for Tom, too, so get him on the ball, and tell him we're expecting him.

I got thinking about sleeping space if Tom stays overnite on Saturday, and decided that we can settle that when the time comes. There are loads of motels right close to us, so if we don't have enuf room we can always get one. Okay? I sure do hope he makes it.

Don got back from Washington last night. Nothing definite on the job. Guess it would be another three months, if at all, before it opens up. They told him they thought the pay would be around $475, though, so he was quite interested. By way of interest, he just did get a $25 per month raise via their union, which we can sure use. Retroactive to December 1--every little bit helps.

Millie just called me to ask where the kids mittens were, so they are playing outside today. I am always glad when they can get out and get a little fresh air. Usually they only stay out a few minutes, but she doesn't seem to mind all the fuss of getting them bundled up, cause she lets them out whenever possible.

Terry is getting unbelievably cute, and she is sooo good natured lately. laughs all the time. She even plays in the toy box, now. Is it possible?????

Bout time you came down to see them!

Or I came home to see you!

By the way, if we do have to go to Washington, it would mean at least a week in Jamestown for me and the kids. Think you could put up with us? I almost wouldn't mind moving if it meant coming home for awhile.

Read the "Record" from top to bottom. Why don't I get a copy of that paper every time? Check with the college-ites, will you, and tell them to send me one.

Busy as the dickens, so guess I better quit. Laura writes that Aunt Mary is coming down to visit her. I'm keeping as good track of Aunt Mary as possible, these days. She's liable to turn out to be a lifesaver.

Bye for now - Lots of love from all of us - Can hardly wait to see you - I'm getting so excited!

Dear Mr. [Name]

I am writing to you regarding the matter we discussed last week. I have reviewed the documents you provided and I am sorry to hear that the situation is not as straightforward as it initially appeared. I will be in touch with you again once I have had a chance to speak with the relevant departments.

I understand your concerns and I am sure we will find a way to resolve this. I will be sure to keep you updated on any developments. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

I have also spoken to the relevant departments and we are working to expedite the process. I will be sure to get back to you as soon as possible. I appreciate your understanding and patience.

I am sorry that this has taken longer than expected. I will be sure to get back to you as soon as possible. I appreciate your understanding and patience.

I will be sure to get back to you as soon as possible. I appreciate your understanding and patience.

Yours sincerely,
